A Sunday Disturbance.

A staff-bug affray which may result fatally occurred on Second Street, near Glenwood Avenue, last Sunday noon. The Italian who did the cutting came from New York to visit his sister. His victim was Frank McGregor, a young man 24 years of age, residing with his parents on Willett Street and employed at the Empire Print Works at Soho. The sister upon whom the Italian intended to call was not at home and he passed the time by loitering in Mrs. Dugan's saloon on Second Street. It was here that he met young McGregor. A quarrel ensued in the course of which the Italian drew a knife and was prevented from using it by the inmates of the place. The Italian then left. McGregor went out shortly afterward and was walking along Second Street when he again met the Italian. The quarrel was resumed and the Italian drew a knife and began slashing at McGregor, cutting him in the face, about the neck and in the back. The Italian stood for a moment over the form of his victim and then started to run, pursued by a mob led by Edward France, a friend of McGregor, who was with him when the trouble began. The Italian ran into the house at 128 Glenwood Avenue known as the Italian barnack. Officer John Waden entered the place and began a search. He found the Italian in the kitchen washing the blood from his hands. The officer took him into custody. Dr. Ward and Van Gieson temporarily dressed the wounds. The Mountsides Hospital ambulance was sent for and McGregor was taken to the hospital. No one was permitted to see him until Wednesday. The Italian gave his name as Carl Rosa, aged 34, and his residence New York. Police Justice Hall committed Rosa to jail to await the result of McGregor's injuries.

How about potatoes and apples? A. Baker & Son are on hand with them, also, prepared to suit the most fastidious in quality and price.

Worthy Your Confidence.

The success of Hood's Sarsaparilla in conquering scrofula in whatever way it may manifest itself is vouched for by thousands who were severely afflicted by this prevalent disease but now rejoice over a permanent cure by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Scrofula may appear as a humor, or it may attack the glands of the neck or break out in dreadful burning sores on the body or limbs. Attacking the mucous membrane, it causes itching, itching, itching, in the lungs lead to consumption. Come as it may, a faithful course of treatment with Hood's Sarsaparilla will overcome it, for working upon the foundation of all diseases, impure blood, the system is clarified and purified, and vigor, strength and health restored to the body.

If you want the best flour that is sold you will certainly have to go to Baker & Son. Their prices are astonishingly low. Butter! Butter! Give them a try and you will surely buy.

Talk of the Town

AND EXPLANATION WHY

AMOS H. VAN HORN,

(LIMITED.)

Are doing the business. Our stock is the largest, prices are the lowest, and terms the easiest in the city. Just give it a passing thought that you can get an Antique Oak Bedroom Suit 8 pieces for $15, $20, $25, and $30, including a Woven Wire Bed Spring and Mixed Mattress. No house in the city offers such inducements.

And then to think again that you can get Tapestry Brussels Carpet for 50, 60 and 70 cents per yard, made and laid with paper, which is a saving of 15 cents per yard. Where is there a house in the city that will offer such bargains.

And then imagine and wonder how we can afford to give away a Moquette Rug or Parlor Table with a Parlor Suit for $20, $30, $40 or $50.

Some of our competitors say that our ads. are too much sameness, and that this ad. is old. Well, we will admit it, but as long as it does the business and saves the people money we will continue to run it.

Portland Range.

Well there is no use saying anything about them. The ending of the pudding is proving it. Seventy-five of them sold last week.

STORING FURNITURE!

If it was the first of May our storage business could not be any better. We suppose it is an account of our low rates and cleanliness.
